

RAILROAD HISTORY & ARCHIVAL RESEARCH

A Symposium

Wednesday
12.3.2014
8:30–4:30 PM

University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Lied Commons
12th & R Streets
Lincoln, NE 68588

8-8:30 a.m. COFFEE & CONVERSATION

8:30-9 a.m. Katherine Walter
Introductions & the impetus for the symposium

9-10 a.m. William G. Thomas, III
Understanding Railroad Funnel Points in 19th Century America: A Civil War Case Study

10:05-11:05 a.m. Shelton Stromquist
Railroad Labor History: New Directions for Global & Comparative Archival Research

11:05-12:15 p.m. John P. Hankey
*Records by the Carload, Data by the Ton:
The Scale & Scope of North American
Railroad Resources*

12:15- 1 p.m. LUNCH PROVIDED

1-2 p.m. Alison Hinderliter
Presenting the New & Improved Guides to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Records at the Newberry Library

2-2:15 p.m. BREAK

2:15-3:30 p.m. Archives & Museums Panel

Tom Mooney, Nebraska State Historical Society, Moderator

Nick Fry, John W. Barringer III, National Railroad Library
*Embracing the Crowd: What Happens
When a Railroad Library Puts 22,000
Images on Flickr*

Patricia LaBounty
The Union Pacific Museum: What This 94 Year Old Corporate Museum Has to Offer

Andrew Bullen
*The Pullman State Historic Site: House
History, Music & Digital Directions*

3:30 p.m. CONCLUSION

4-5 p.m. Optional Exhibit
UNL Archives & Special Collections
29 Love Library South

